REFUND POLICIES FOR INDIANA, IOWA, OREGON, AND WISCONSIN

INDIANA RESIDENT'S REFUND POLICIES

REFUND POLICY FOR A STUDENT'S FIRST CLASS WITH UMA

Aside from refunds required under applicable law, for students in their first class in a new UMA enrollment and students who are in their first course after re-entering into UMA, UMA voluntarily refunds all tuition and fees for the first course if the student does not continue on at UMA in a second course in that enrollment. If a student has received physical textbooks, UMA will charge a textbook fee. Such students who have received physical textbooks through UMA may receive a full or partial refund for the books if returned to UMA, depending on the condition of the returned books. As part of the refund practice described in this paragraph, UMA sends back all Title IV aid to its funding source and does not seek repayment from students for tuition and fees incurred in the first course.

For all students in courses other than their first course at UMA, the other provisions in the Refund Policies below apply to determine the appropriate refund amount.

PRO RATA REFUND CALCULATION FOR ALL PROGRAMS FOR INDIANA RESIDENTS

A student who resides in Indiana and who ceases enrollment at UMA is subject to the pro rata tuition refund calculation as outlined below, which is based upon the amount of assignments completed in a course. If a student is subject to a refund adjustment of tuition, UMA will adjust the student's account ledger with the proper associated percentage.

- Prior to the first day of a course, a student receives a refund of 100% of tuition charges.
- After the first day of the course until the student completes 10% of the assignments, a student receives a tuition adjustment of 90% of the course charge.
- After completing 10% of the assignments, but prior to completing 25% of the assignments, a student receives a tuition adjustment of 75% of the course charge.
- After completing 25% of the assignments but prior to completing 50% of the assignments, a student receives a tuition adjustment of 50% of the course charge.
- After completing 50% of the assignments but prior to completing 75% of the assignments, a student receives a tuition adjustment of 25% of the course charge.
- After completing 75% of assignments, a student receives no tuition adjustment.

UMA is required to perform institutional refund calculations (pro-rata) for all students who withdraw or are withdrawn from UMA including for the failure to return from an approved leave of absence. The institutional refund policy is in addition to the Return of Title IV Funds refund calculation. UMA performs all institutional refund calculations within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Refund calculations are based on the student's last date of attendance. If the student is owed a refund from the institutional refund calculation, UMA will process the necessary refund within thirty (30) calendar days. UMA returns unearned federal student aid within 45 calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Students are responsible for any balance due on their accounts as a result of withdrawal from UMA.

PRO RATA REFUND CALCULATION FOR NON-TERM PROGRAMS FOR IOWA RESIDENTS

Pertains to the following programs:

- Pharmacy Technician (Online)
- Health Sciences – Pharmacy Technician (Online)

If students cease enrollment at UMA, the following policies apply:

- If students are cancelled by UMA, all tuition and fees charged are refunded. If a student cancels (other than an active duty military student) and physical textbooks provided by UMA are not returned, students are assessed a book fee for physical textbooks.
- Tuition is charged per payment period for all courses scheduled for that payment period.

If students cease enrollment at UMA between day eight and the end of the payment period, students receive a pro rata refund of tuition as follows:

- The pro rata amount of tuition refunded is determined by dividing the number of calendar days remaining after a student's last date of attendance in a payment period by the number of calendar days in the payment period in which the withdrawal occurred.
- The number of calendar days in a payment period is defined as the number of calendar days from the start of a payment period until the last day of the last course a student was scheduled to attend in the payment period (inclusive of holidays).
- Students withdrawing on the payment period ending date do not receive any tuition refund.
- Refunds are rounded to the nearest dollar.
- Refunds are provided to the student within forty-five calendar days after the school determines the student withdrew.

- A student meeting the above eligibility requirements may make arrangements with his/her instructors for course grades and/or incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the student's registration shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for the courses in full; or
- A student meeting the above eligibility requirements may make arrangements with his/her instructors for some course grades and/or incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such an arrangement is made, the student's registration shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for those courses. Any course for which arrangements cannot be made for grades or incompletes shall be considered dropped and the tuition and mandatory fees for the course refunded.

If, at any time, a student terminates his/her enrollment due to the student's physical incapacity or due to the transfer of a student's spouse's employment to another city, the terminating student shall receive a pro rata refund of tuition in an amount equal to the amount of tuition multiplied by the ratio of the remaining number of calendar days to the total calendar days in the term for which the student has been charged.

UMA is required to perform institutional refund calculations (pro-rata) for all students who withdraw or are withdrawn from UMA including for the failure to return from an approved leave of absence. - Prior to the first day of a course and if a student does not begin attendance during the first seven calendar days of a program, a student receives a refund of 100% of tuition charges.
- During the first seven calendar days of a course, a student receives a refund of 80% of tuition charges.
- After the first seven calendar days of a course, during the second week of the course, a student receives a refund of 60% of tuition charges.
- During the third week of a course, a student receives a refund of 40% of tuition charges.
- During the fourth week of a course or later, a student receives no refund of tuition charges.

UMA is required to perform institutional refund calculations (pro-rata) for all students who withdraw or are withdrawn from UMA including for the failure to return from an approved leave of absence. The institutional refund policy is in addition to the Return of Title IV Funds refund calculation. UMA performs all institutional refund calculations within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Refund calculations are based on the student's last date of attendance. If the student is owed a refund from the institutional refund calculation, UMA will process the necessary refund within thirty (30) calendar days. UMA returns unearned federal student aid within 45 calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Students are responsible for any balance due on their accounts as a result of withdrawal from UMA.

WISCONSIN RESIDENT'S REFUND POLICIES

REFUND POLICY FOR A STUDENT'S FIRST CLASS WITH UMA

Aside from refunds required under applicable law, for students in their first class in a new UMA enrollment and students who are in their first course after re-entering into UMA, UMA voluntarily refunds all tuition and fees for the first course if the student does not continue on at UMA in a second course in that enrollment. If a student has received physical textbooks, UMA will charge a textbook fee. Such students who have received physical textbooks through UMA may receive a full or partial refund for the books if returned to UMA, depending on the condition of the returned books. As part of the refund practice described in this paragraph, UMA sends back all Title IV aid to its funding source and does not seek repayment from students for tuition and fees incurred in the first course.

For all students in courses other than their first course at UMA, the other provisions in the Refund Policies below apply to determine the appropriate refund amount.

PRO RATA REFUND CALCULATION FOR STANDARD TERM PROGRAMS FOR WISCONSIN RESIDENTS

Pertains to the following programs:

- Health and Human Services (Associate Degree)
- Health Information Technology (Associate Degree)
- Health Sciences (with Concentrations except Pharmacy Technician) (Associate Degree)
- Healthcare Management (Associate Degree)
- Medical Billing and Coding (Associate Degree)
- Healthcare Technology & Systems (Diploma)
- Medical Administrative Assistant (Diploma)
- Medical Billing and Coding (Diploma)
- Medical Office and Billing Specialist (Diploma)

A student who resides in Wisconsin and who ceases enrollment at UMA receives a tuition refund as follows. If a student's termination date is:

- Prior to the first day of a course and if a student does not begin attendance during the first seven calendar days of a program, a student receives a refund of 100% of tuition charges.
- During the first seven calendar days of a course, a student receives a refund of 80% of tuition charges.
- After the first seven calendar days of a course, during the second week of the course, a student receives a refund of 60% of tuition charges.
- During the third week of a course, a student receives a refund of 40% of tuition charges.
- During the fourth week of a course or later, a student receives no refund of tuition charges.

PRO RATA REFUND CALCULATION FOR NON-TERM PROGRAMS FOR WISCONSIN RESIDENTS

Pertains to the following programs:

- Pharmacy Technician (Diploma)
- Health Sciences – Pharmacy Technician (Associate Degree)

UMA may make special arrangements to provide a fair and equitable refund to a student, on a case-by-case basis, when a student is suffering extenuating circumstances and is unable to continue his/her studies.

Students enrolled in UMA non-term programs are billed by payment period.

For any full academic year, the charges are divided equally for each payment period (with the exception of the Health Sciences – Pharmacy Technician Associate Degree and Pharmacy Technician Diploma programs). For any academic year that does not meet the standard academic year definition and consists of multiple payment periods, the charges will be prorated for each payment period based on the number of credits assigned to the payment period.

Students enrolled in the Health Sciences – Pharmacy Technician Associate Degree and Pharmacy Technician Diploma programs are charged based on the number of credit hours assigned to each payment period for all academic years.

A student withdrawing from a program receives a pro rata refund based on the percentage of the student's completion of his/her current payment period as follows:

- If students withdraw under the UMA withdrawal process before the start of a payment period for which they have been charged, a student receives a refund of 100% of tuition charges.
- If students withdraw under the UMA withdrawal process after the start of a payment period for which they have been charged but before or at the 60% completion of the payment period, students are issued a pro rata refund as follows:
  - The pro rata amount of tuition refunded is determined by dividing the number of calendar days remaining after a student's last date of attendance in a payment period by the number of calendar days in the payment period in which the withdrawal occurred.
  - The number of calendar days in a payment period is defined as the number of calendar days from the start of a payment period until the last day of the last course a student was scheduled to attend in the payment period. Scheduled breaks of 5 calendar days or more and periods of Leave of Absence are excluded from the calculation.
- After the completion of 60% of a payment period, tuition is 100% earned, and no tuition refund is made.

UMA is required to perform institutional refund calculations (pro-rata) for all students who withdraw or are withdrawn from UMA including for the failure to return from an approved leave of absence. The institutional refund policy is in addition to the Return of Title IV Funds refund calculation. UMA performs all institutional refund calculations within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Refund calculations are based on the student's last date of attendance. If the student is owed a refund from the institutional refund calculation, UMA will process the necessary refund within thirty (30) calendar days. UMA returns unearned federal student aid within 45 calendar days of the date of determination the student withdrew or was withdrawn. Students are responsible for any balance due on their accounts as a result of withdrawal from UMA.
